Los Alcazares

37.740584788858285, -0.8627700805664064

Modern development of detached villas in an established area less than one kilometre from the popular beaches and main plaza of Los Alcazares, with it's array of banks, bars, bakery, local tapas bars and international restaurants. This property comprises of three double bedrooms (one on the ground floor and two on the first floor, all benefiting from private terraces), two bathrooms (one en-suite), rooftop solarium (accessed via stairs on the first floor), fully-fitted kitchen and open-plan living/dining area, leading to a private part tiled/grass garden, swimming pool and off-road parking. These villas have been thoughtfully designed to provide the perfect individual private contemporary living space. The promenade of Los Alcazares is an amazing place to walk, either during the day or in the evening, with countless restaurants to choose from and some great little tapas bars by the sea. There is also seven kilometres of coastline from Los Narejos to Punta Brava to walk along or, for the more active, this area offers a variety of sports activities, including seasonal water sports and many excellent championship golf courses.
