We present an attractive apartment located on the first floor, ideal for those seeking a comfortable and cozy home near the sea. This charming property features a spacious bedroom that ensures perfect rest after enjoying the sun and beach activities. The living-dining room elegantly integrates with a practical open kitchen, creating a functional and modern space to live or entertain guests. In addition, it has a private terrace of 6 m² facing west, perfect for relaxing at sunset or sharing pleasant moments in good company. The property also offers access to a refreshing communal pool where you can enjoy hot days; all this combined with its privileged location: just 300 meters from the popular Los Locos Beach. Equally important is having all necessary services very close by: supermarkets, restaurants, and public transport are practically within reach without needing long trips
