The mountains that surround the city also protect it from strong winds. These factors create a special microclimate with up to 300 sunny days and an average annual temperature of 19°C. Playa de Poniente is the perfect destination for vacationers looking for constant sun and sand, fun and good food. Benidorm is 38 km from Alicante and 106 km from Valencia. Its extensive infrastructure network allows rapid connectivity with the rest of the world by land, sea or air.
